

Translational Adapted Group (TAG) $$$ Scholarships for MWU, SLP Students to Join the Neurodiversity-Affirming Practice Community in AZ SCHOOLS

- TAG Lab at MWU (PI: Fissel Brannick) was awarded a $1.25m Federal grant that awards 8 x 25k $$$ student scholarships to Prospective MWU SLP Students to receive specialized community-based training to serve neurodiverse children!
- Who should apply? All students who want to work with children, AND who value Social Responsibility, Compassion, and Community are encouraged to apply!

TAG SCHOLARS
PROGRAM WEBSITE

SFB_RESEARCH

TAG Community

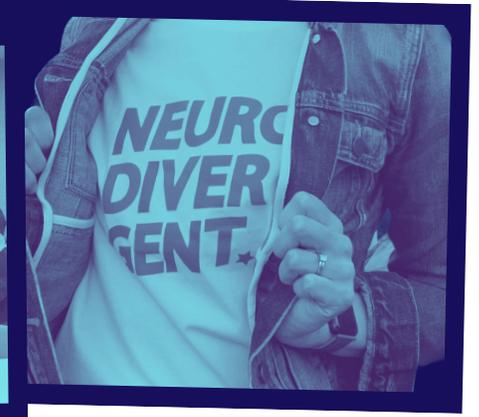

TAG Lab is a neurodiversity-affirming community of faculty, clinicians, students, citizen scientists, and local partners who build, run, and evaluate practical and accessible, neurodiversity-affirming programs with local communities.

TAG Community Programs

Monthly Family Literacy
Nights (with Glendale Library)

TAG Summer Camp (June)

TAG Community Training

- Specialized coursework in Autism & Neurodiversity, AAC, and Literacy
- Specialized clinical training via FLN and TAG Summer Camp
- Access to the M3 TAG Mentors Network and Placement Opportunities
- Access to the AMAZING TAG community, past and present!

I'm Interested! What's next?

- Email TAG PI: Schea Fissel Brannick, PhD, CCC-SLP | sfisse@midwestern.edu
- Follow along with the TAG Scholars Program launch on socials (@sfb_research)
- Learn More & Sign up for Updates at: www.translationaladaptedgroup.com